

THE CATTLE SHIPMENT.

The Sanpete Valley War Becoming More Serious.

HOW EPHRAIM STANDS.

A Meeting of the City Council Last Night.

It is said the Sanpete Valley Road will have no trouble in getting through. The Chinese Ambassador-General Railway Notes.

The exclusive announcement in yesterday's HERALD regarding the shipment of cattle to be made from Gunnison tomorrow by Saunders & Parsons under the $105 cut rate of the Rio Grande Western, was very displeasing to some of the interested parties who were trying to keep the matter exceedingly quiet. It is understood that the Western officials were astounded when they saw the publication and are making strenuous endeavors to locate the person who let the cat out of the bag. It may be stated that the shipment will be made over the Western, Denver & Rio Grande and Rock Island. Whether the two latter roads share in the $10 cut in a doubtful question, because neither of the agencies would give it away if they were and the Rio Grande Western will say nothing about a cut.

In regard to the Sanpete Valley war, a merchant of Ephraim stated yesterday that the mayor and council have ordered the leaving out of the Rio Grande Western side track and intend to enforce the order. The council met last evening, but no report of their work can be given further than the statement that the proposition favoring the Sanpete Valley road were heard on all sides. "The Sanpete Valley road will have no trouble getting through the town," regardless of the efforts of the Westerns," says a telegram received yesterday. The "people of Ephraim are inclined to do everything they can to help the Sanpete Valley through, and say a right of way up Main street will be given if the Western doesn't remove the obnoxious sidetrack. The track-layers expect to be in Ephraim by Tuesday night as they are now three miles out from Chester."

One Republican shipper, who has been sending his wares over the Western for some time, remarked yesterday to the HERALD man, "The Mayor of Ephraim, McFarland, is a good Democrat, more so the city, but he doesn't intend to stand any foolishness on the part of the Westerns. If the sidetrack isn't taken up in quick time he will have it taken up. All the people of Ephraim are behind him and are better friends to the Western because of the course it has taken in this matter. The feeling is so strong that Mr. Babcock will soon find that the Rio Grande Western is the only road in Sanpete valley and that it is the least popular of the two."

LONG CONTENTED SUIT.

A Railroad Case Decided in the United States Court.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 25.—Judge Williams of the United States circuit court has decided in favor of the complainant in the long contested case of the St. Paul & Northern Pacific Railroad company vs. St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad company (now the Great Northern). The suit was commenced several years ago and involves two million acres of land in northwestern Minnesota. It was alleged the land was deeded to the Manitoba road in 1871 and that the second deed was made in 1871. The suit was brought by the Northern Pacific to have those deeds set aside and the title vested in the Northern Pacific. The main question in dispute was which company first built its line and selected its land.

THE CHINESE AMBASSADOR.

The New Representative Will Pass Through Ogden Today.

The new Chinese ambassador and his quite numerous suite will pass through Ogden in the morning and will go on east over the Union Pacific. The representative of the Flower Kingdom is traveling most luxuriously, being provided with the best accommodations that can be furnished by the American railway systems. On the way he makes quite a show of himself as he is attired in richest China silks, embroidered with gold and precious jewels. His suite is also gorgeously attired as befits the attendants upon so august a personage.

Railway Notes.

R. W. Johnson, live stock agent of the Northwestern, is lying ill at the Cullen. Mrs. W. H. Shearman, the Misses Shearman and Harry Shearman will go to Chicago today over the Rio Grande Western.

The Norden bend had its excursion to the beach yesterday. A fine programme was rendered by the band and assistants. All enjoyed themselves.

J. F. Dodge will start this morning over the Union Pacific for the fair. After doing the White city he will go on to Boston and then across the pond.

The Union Pacific is making great preparations for the celebration of Labor Day (Sept. 4) at Ogden Beach. The Federated Trades are also doing everything possible.

The Union Pacific officials claim that 600 excursionists will be down from Cache valley today for the excursion to Garfield and that 1,000 will be down for the sacred concert tomorrow.

George D. Helms, chief clerk of the passenger department of the Rio Grande Western, returned yesterday from the eastern trip. He reports that the meeting of the passenger association did nothing more than to fix up matters fully as to existing rates.

THE NINE OF DIAMONDS.

Several Stories as to Why It Is Called the "Curse of Scotland."

During the reign of Mary a man named George Campbell entered Edinburgh castle for the purpose of stealing the Queen's crown. In his effort he was partially successful, in that he did secure nine large and valuable diamonds from the crown and made his escape from the country. In order to restore these precious stones a tax, against which a very general outcry was raised, was laid on the people. They characterized the tax the curse of Scotland.

Another and perhaps still better reason grew out of the battle of Culloden, by which the hopes of the Stuarts were crushed, and was so called a national curse. The Duke of Cumberland was a great card player, and always had about him a deck of cards. When he had won the battle of Culloden he drew from his pocket a card, and on its back he wrote a dispatch declaring the fall of the house of Stuart and his great victory. The card happened to be the nine of diamonds.

Still another reason. The infamous massacre of Glencoe was the work of the eldest son of the Earl of Stair, who signed the order for its consummation, and was at that time secretary of state. The family coat of arms was a shield on which was the nine spot of diamonds. So the people called that coat of arms which bore the diamond spot the "curse of Scotland."—San Francisco Call.

One of Bismarck's Habits. Once when Bismarck was a cavalry officer he was standing with some other officers on a bridge over a lake. As he was about to give an order, his groom, Hildebrand, rode one of the horses to water close by the bridge. Suddenly the horse lost footing, and Hildebrand, clinging to the animal, disappeared with it in the water. Before the other officers could collect their senses Bismarck had cast off his sword and uniform and had thrown himself in the lake to save his servant. By good fortune he seized him, but the man clung to him so closely in his death agony that he had to dive before he could loose himself from him. Bismarck rose to the surface, raising his servant with him, and brought him safe to land in an unconscious condition. The next day the servant was as well as ever. But the little town that had witnessed the brave rescue was in great commotion. They petitioned the superintendent, who obtained for the young officer the medal "for rescue from danger." And now on great occasions, the well-known Prussian safety medal may be seen beside the proudest stars in Christendom on the breast of the famous creator of united Germany. Bismarck, it is said, is prouder of his first medal than of all the rest put together. One day in the plenitude of Bismarck's power a noble minister approached the premier, and with a tinge of satire asked him the meaning of this modest decoration. He at once replied: "It is in the habit sometimes of saving life." The diplomatist lowered his eyes before the look which accompanied Bismarck's lightly spoken words.—Chicago Herald.

Every Testimonial. In behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly true, and will bear the closest investigation. No matter where it may be from, it is as reliable and worthy your confidence as if it came from your most respected friend. Have you ever tried this excellent medicine?

For a general family medicine we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

UTAH AS A STATE.

During the last few years of its territorial history Utah has made magnificent progress in every material province, and is now fully equipped for her entry into the galaxy of states. That this wish is accomplished there is no reasonable doubt. As a commemoration of this probable event, and to still further aid in our progress and development, the HERALD will compile and publish a Souvenir History of Salt Lake City, setting forth the manifold struggles of our people in the past, and the splendid results achieved thereby in the plentiful fruition of the present. The book will be the handsomest, as to typography and illustrations, that has ever been issued in Utah, and neither expense nor care will be spared to make it a worthy and attractive souvenir. The work will be neither theological, sectarian nor partisan, but will simply give the proper credit to those to whom it is due, displaying how and by whom our resources have been developed until they have become such prominent factors of our prosperity, and a beautiful city has been built upon what was an arid waste. It will supply the statistical and historical business statement, showing our growth and present unexcelled facilities for the transaction of trade and commerce, and the eligibility of Salt Lake City as a health resort or a Mecca for the tourist and traveler.

Territories, like persons, must either advance or retrograde, and if we rest contented with our efforts in the past we shall surely lose ground in the strife for progress with neighboring states. During this period of depression the state has never been a better opportunity to present the manifold advantages our city presents to the capitalist, merchant, investor or settler, and to elaborate the superior status our city occupies, financially and commercially. Many pamphlets have been issued on these subjects, but they are usually published in the interest of some particular corporation or enterprise, and hence were specific and not general in their scope. The souvenir history will embrace all the salient features of Salt Lake city and the adjacent country, and will be a most valuable incentive to an examination of our resources, as well as a handsome demonstration of their utilization by our citizens; thus forming a valuable "object lesson" to those who are seeking for the more available and beneficial investment of capital, or for engaging in more profitable commercial enterprises.

In the furtherance of this work we seek the aid of our citizens, as in helping us they most effectively aid themselves, and by means of this souvenir and its large distribution the attention of people all over the United States will be called to the exceptional facilities in numberless ways, our city affords. This work will be gratuitously distributed all over the United States, especial attention, however, being given in its distribution to make it more thorough in those places accessible to our trade and commerce. In the presentation of its manifold merits to our people by our canvassers, The Herald bespeaks for them the courteous attention of our citizens and to suggest to them that during a time of unsettled conditions is the time to place their feet on a sure foundation, and when everyone is prosperous, then the prosperity begets satisfaction and utter disinclination for change, but when every business and commercial concern is being compressed by the tight boot of business depression, alteration of the trouble can be sought and successfully found in the superior advantages of our city and state.

CITY AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Good Progress Made on the Joint Building.

MORE CONTRACTS LET.

Some Trouble Over the Contract for Plumbing.

Workmen Will Begin Putting the Roof Trusses on Today—County War-rants Good for County Taxes—Charges Against the Sheriff.

Work on the joint city and county building is now progressing satisfactorily. One hundred and forty men are now employed there and they will commence putting on the roof trusses today. This means that the structure will soon be under cover and in good shape.

The joint committee met yesterday afternoon and ratified the contract of Sheriff and Bowman for stone saving.

The contract for circular window frames, amounting to $500, was awarded to H. P. Mason.

Five car loads of rock for the building arrived yesterday and are now being unloaded.

Insurance on the building to the amount of $50,000, divided among ten companies, was placed.

The pay rolls, amounting to about $2,000, were approved, and will be met the latter part of next week.

In regard to the contract of J. W. Farrell & Co. for the plumbing, it was found that it came under the old plumbing ordinance. The new ordinance makes material changes in the character of material permitted to be used in this kind of work, and as the contractors obtained their permit under it, they seem to be in a hole. However, the matter was referred to a committee for investigation, and an agreement may be reached.

COUNTY WARRANTS.

They Are Good for Payment of County Taxes.

Several persons made inquiry at THE HERALD office yesterday to ascertain if county warrants could be used in payment of taxes. As there seems to be considerable uncertainty in the point, we will state for the benefit of the public that the county warrants are good for payment of county taxes.

BRUTALITY ALLEGED.

The Charge Made Against Sheriff McQueen and his Jailors.

Henry Cassidy, a member of the gang of toughs who terrorized the people of Sandy last winter, was released from the county jail yesterday morning, and his first act was to make an affidavit charging Sheriff McQueen and the jailors with extreme brutality. He claims that the prisoners are given improper and insufficient food, and that they are not allowed sufficient exercise, and charges several specific acts of brutality towards him, alleging that he was put in the dungeon several times because he was riotous; that he was once handcuffed and his hands fastened to the top of an iron door, and beaten with broom handles by the sheriff; that on another occasion Jailer Hill and Guard Albright turned the hose upon him while he was sick, and kept the water playing until he fainted; that on another occasion when he had smashed eight panes of glass in his cell, and made a noise by singing and shouting, Deputy Sheriff O'Brien and Jailer Hill tried to handcuff him and he resisted, and O'Brien hit him with a club, rendering him unconscious, after which the hose was again turned on him by O'Brien.

Cassidy concludes his affidavit with a statement to the effect that when he was released, Hill told him to get on to town or he would be arrested again, while the sheriff concluded to send him to Ogden. He says he had concluded to lead an honest life in future and expects to leave this part of the country.

No one will deny that Cassidy and the rest of his gang were desperadoes and that they richly merited the terms of imprisonment to which they were sentenced for their criminal conduct at Sandy. At the same time brutality towards prisoners is inexcusable and there should be some way of punishing those who are guilty of it. Cassidy's affidavit may or may not be true, but the fact that he does not try to make himself an angel and admit that he was recently guilty of misconduct is in his favor.

During the dog-day season, the drain of nervous and vital energy may be counteracted by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, it acts as a tonic and corrects the system, and enables the system to defy malarial and other climatic influences.

In addition to the Territorial Bicycle tournament at Salt Lake August 31, there will be a grand bicycle military drill by the best riders of the territory. Ogden will be well represented both in the drill and contests, and predict winning one of the first prizes, which are as follows: First prize, for most graceful lady rider, gold medal set with diamonds; second, lady rider, silver medal, same design as first prize. Best mile gentleman, gold medal, same as lady's first prize; second best, silver medal, a duplicate of first prize; also four other special prizes, in all nine valuable prizes, including one grand prize for fancy trick riding.

They All Agree. That the through Pullman Car Service from Salt Lake to Chicago via the Chicago, Union Pacific and Northwestern, is unsurpassed by any other line. This is the only dining car line, 48 hours between Salt Lake and Chicago.
